WRITE LIKE A PROFESSIONAL

[Professional Business Writing Skills]

Trainer: Dr. Alistair King

Duration: 2 days

INTRODUCTION:

This course is intended for Managers and Executives who are responsible for writing and supervising documents written by others.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course aims to provide participants with a set of skills and awarenesses which they can use with immediate effect.

These skills and awarenesses are:

- ❖ Transferring spoken input into written material
- ❖ Understanding the progression from the beginning of the document to the end
- ❖ Knowing in which type of documents to use the Active or Passive Voice
- ❖ Using phraseology which is stylistically appropriate
- ❖ Knowing how to connect various points in order to present the best possible impact and therefore, the best possible outcome
- ❖ Knowing how to use the different past tenses in a way which promotes accuracy and immediate understanding
- ❖ Knowing how the various components of letters and reports fit together and flow into each other

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Managers, executives; Sales & Marketing, Customer Service people; anyone who has to write, contribute to or edit business documents.

WHAT WILL THEY LEARN:

Participants will learn how to produce documents which are concise, cohesive, grammatically accurate and stylistically appropriate. Elements of style and grammatical forms will be introduced and practised throughout the course.

HOW WILL THEY LEARN:

This course will consist of instructor presentation with video; individual and group writing tasks with presentations to plenary. Authentic material and case studies will form a large proportion of the course materials.

AT THE END OF THE COURSE:

Participants will be able to compose confidently, competently and with the minimum of supervision a variety of business documents (reports, letters, memos, minutes).

COURSE LEADER:

Dr Alistair King
